

Mr. Hammond's Third Quarter Reading List

(In Class)

Genre: Non-Fiction

Guided Reading, Note taking skills, Inference skills, summarization skills, identifying fact vs. opinion, determining cause and effect, identifying the sequence of events, identifying the main idea and supporting details, identifying Propaganda, using a variety of graphic organizers.

1. The Readers Handbook, Non-fiction Section
2. Captured by Indians, Selected passages
3. Thomas Edison: The Great American Inventor, by: Louise Egan
4. Select Readings: Silence Dogood by Ben Franklin, released TAK's selections
5. Select Non-fiction articles from the local newspaper, magazines and the internet
6. Library Text for Nine week project (Read at Home)

An Exam will be given at the Mid-point to evaluate mastery of note taking skills and of Objective I and II for the TAK's. The final exam for this quarter is based on student's project and a mastery evaluation of their Summarization skills.

Please visit the resources Tab for additional practice, information and guidance.

Thank you,

Mr. Hammond